Dancing Freedom with Ashley Klein and Live music by Poranguí

"Embody Earth Consciousness" is a sample theme - this part of the title may change depending on the venue / event

Embody Earth Consciousness: Dancing Freedom with Ashley Klein featuring Live Music by Poranguí

Dancing Freedom is an ecstatic, somatic, and shamanic container for embodied awakening. Through free-form movement and gentle facilitation we journey through the elements and into self... a divine submersion into sound, motion, breath, and meditation, surrendering into our authentic experience and expression. In this sacred container we invite our body, heart, and mind to feel and dance our present-tense prayers.

Brazilian World Soul artist and healer, Poranguí, masterfully weaves ancestral songs & indigenous rhythms from around the world as a one-man orchestra. Immerse yourself in sacred sounds that transcend cultural and stylistic boundaries to deeply heal & integrate the mind, body and soul. Guided by his live soundtracks and Dancing Freedom facilitator, Ashley Klein, we weave the medicine of movement and sound through the consciousness of earth, air, water, fire, and ether.

About your guides:

Reared among the three cultures of Brazil, Mexico and the U.S., Poranguí was steeped in various traditional forms of music, healing and ceremony since birth. Drawing from his cross-cultural background and ethnomusicology training, Poranguí utilizes the healing properties of sound and movement to foster our individual and collective well being.

Ashley resides in Sedona, Arizona, where she facilitates Dancing Freedom and produces retreats and world music events. Her movement background ranges from ballet shoes to pom poms and includes a love for Brazilian and West African dance. To Ashley, dance is home- a place of inner connection and outer expression of self and all that is.
